

Requirements

- Feasible, can be done with current technologies
- Valid, is what the client wants
- Unambiguous, can not be interpreted
- Validatable, can be tested
- Consistent, with other parts of the app

Requirements:

- In the song interface, the user can play a song, skip, like, dislike, block, report, add it to a playlist, change the timestamp, modify the audio settings(equalizer), go back to the main menu.
- In the playlist interface, the user can select a song from the playlist, play the songs, shuffle play the songs, remove a song, go back to the main menu.
- In the main menu, the user can select a song or a playlist, search for a certain song; The user can navigate to "Music Creator", user profile tab.
- In the user profile interface, the user can navigate to the history tab, personal playlists tab, banned songs tab, subscription tab?(see subscription status).
- In the user profile interface an artist can navigate to the studio interface.
- In the Studio interface the artist can add/delete personal song create/delete an personal album,add/remove personal songs to an album
- In the history tab, the user can select previously played songs.
- In the personal playlists tab, the user can select a personal playlist.
- In the personal blocked songs tab, the user can remove a personally blocked song.